

Henri Kohn

Born in Washington D.C. and raised in Cologne Henri Kohn was educated in his early years by his fathers extensive collection of jazz and quality black music. After been revolutionized by rap music and taking part in breakdancing competitions in his youth Henri was kissed by the beauty of house, taping music from the radio.

By the age of 15, he sneaked himself into the Cologne nightlife dancing the night away in dark and sweaty clubs and by the age of 17, he landed his first residencies at various clubs in Cologne, playing Chicago and Detroit influenced sound.

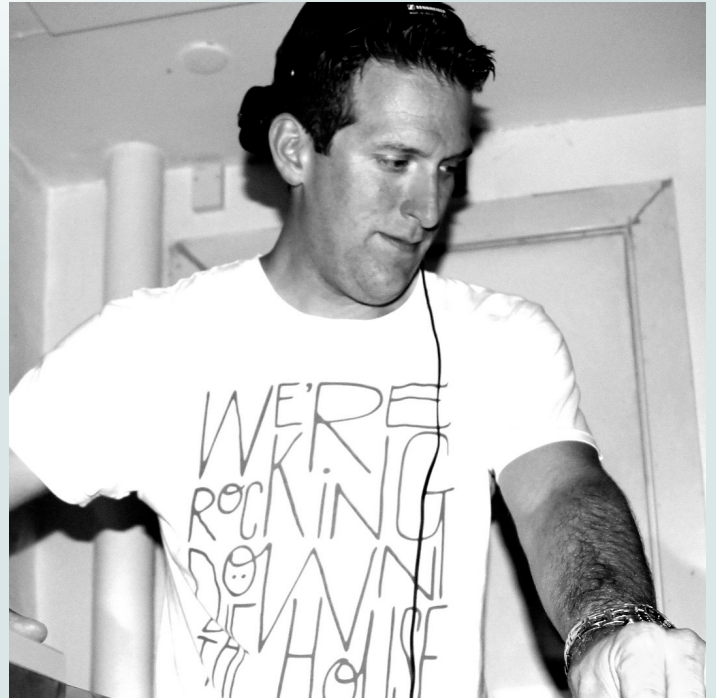

Since then Henri has become a pillar of the house scene in Germany, with residencies at most of the top clubs in the area and other German cities and has taken the step quickly up to the international DJ circuit and played all over Germany, Poland, France, Spain, Greece, Russia, Switzerland, Poland, Italy, in the U.S. and the U.K, including gigs at clubs like Ministry of Sound (London), Space, Pacha, El Divino (Ibiza).

To him House Music is a Healer that brings people from all cultural backgrounds together on the same dancefloor to have a good time. Henri Kohn is known to bring people in the Zone with his skills of reading the crowd and picking the right record at the right time.

Henri Kohn is also the A&R of Clubstar & Conya Records and known for his tasty cd compilations like "Sunset Pearls", "House Music Is Love", "Clubstar Session", "A Drawer Full Of Deep House" and "Golden Lounge".
